

Ronald Trombley and Sally O'Rorke, representing the developers of Harbor Place Residences, show members of the Greater Haverhill Chamber of Commerce one of the apartments at the new downtown complex. (Courtesy photograph.)

Greater Haverhill Chamber of Commerce President Beverly Donovan, Mayor James J. Fiorentini and City Council Vice President Melinda E. Barrett. (Courtesy photograph.)

About 150 people turned out Wednesday night for one of the first public tours of the apartments at Harbor Place in downtown Haverhill.

Among those on hand were Ronald Trombley and Sally O'Rorke, representing the developer of the 80-unit complex. Elected officials included Haverhill Mayor James J. Fiorentini and City Council Vice President Melinda E. Barrett. The event was organized by the Greater Haverhill Chamber of Commerce.

Harbor Place Residences opened in December, offering a mix of one, two and three bedroom apartments. Of these, 56 apartments are discounted and 24 rent at market rates.

Others interested in a tour or leasing an apartment may call Harbor Place's leasing office at 978-478-6310.

Related

Residents May Now Vote on Harbor Place Time Capsule Items
In "Haverhill"

Dempsey, Tsongas Praise Downtown Growth at Breakfast
In "Haverhill"

Officials Cut Ribbon at Merrimack Street Boardwalk Extension
In "Haverhill"